

Rank Each of the Oral Presentations on the following criteria where 5 is excellent and 1 is poor. The scores for each student will be summed and the award will be presented to the student with the best overall score. Comments are important especially when the scores are close. PLEASE NOTE: MAXIMUM SCORE POSSIBLE = 50.

Note: undergraduate(s) are noted in red.

Oral Evaluation Elements:

- Quality of presentation and clarity of slides
- Background sufficient to understand why the work was done
- Adequacy of objectives
- Clear but not overly complex materials and methods
- Logical organization and presentation of data (illustrations, tables, graphs etc. easy to understand)
- Conclusions justified by data
- Scientific merit
- Length of presentation: within 12 min
- Questions answered adequately
- Overall rating of this presentation
- Total

Enter comments about this presentation in the box below